Roseburg Community Cancer Center Hosts 1st Annual Oncology Conference.

Roseburg, USA — February, 26 2015— The Community Cancer Center is trying a new approach to help local physicians keep pace with the latest cancer treatment procedures by hosting the first annual regional Oncology Conference on February 27, 2015.

The Oncology conference will be conducted in the conference room of the Community Cancer Center at 2880 NW Stewart Parkway Roseburg, OR 97471. A conference of this nature and scope is an important teaching tool and ritual of medical education to help doctors and other healthcare professionals keep up to date in important evolving areas that may be outside of their core practice.

The Community Cancer Center (CCC) is a private, charitable, non-profit, community-owned and operated cancer treatment facility.

Press welcome at 12:00pm 2/27/2015
